Dads, Grads and Newlyweds

IT DON'D ON ME

by Rev. Dr. Don Welsh

June has traditionally been known as the month for weddings. It is also the month when Father's Day has been celebrated and the time when we cheer out graduates as they complete their education. These are all milestones in life. They are also times when we celebrate love and honor those who we acknowledge the expression of love.

When you celebrate fatherhood, you are celebrating all he gave you and giving thanks for his empowerment and clarity. The qualities of wisdom, love and strength give us an example of the parenting responsibilities so important in our lives.

May the intelligence, power and responsibilities within you let God's goodness shine through you now and always.

In Light and Love,

Dr. Don
